

May Services and activities at the Shrine Church and Centre of St Melangell

Please note that, for the last month, the Centre's persistent phone and broadband problems have worsened and it has not been possible to access any emails or phone messages sent during this time. New facilities are being provided and this means that the current email address is being replaced, though the same phone number will remain. The Guardian's contact details may also change and full details will be posted when the new information is known. Apologies for any inconvenience caused.
